Ontario Bible
College

Dedication

This year, the staff of Maxaipa '82 found it only fitting that the graduating class of 1982 make the decision of the Yearbook dedication. Through their years at O.B.C., many people have influenced their lives. However, what has impressed them most is the silent witness of Mr. George Victor Caines.

Mr. Caines, or more affectionately known as "George" was born August 1, 1922. Fifty years later to the very day, George began his employment at the Spadina campus as a member of the campus operations staff.

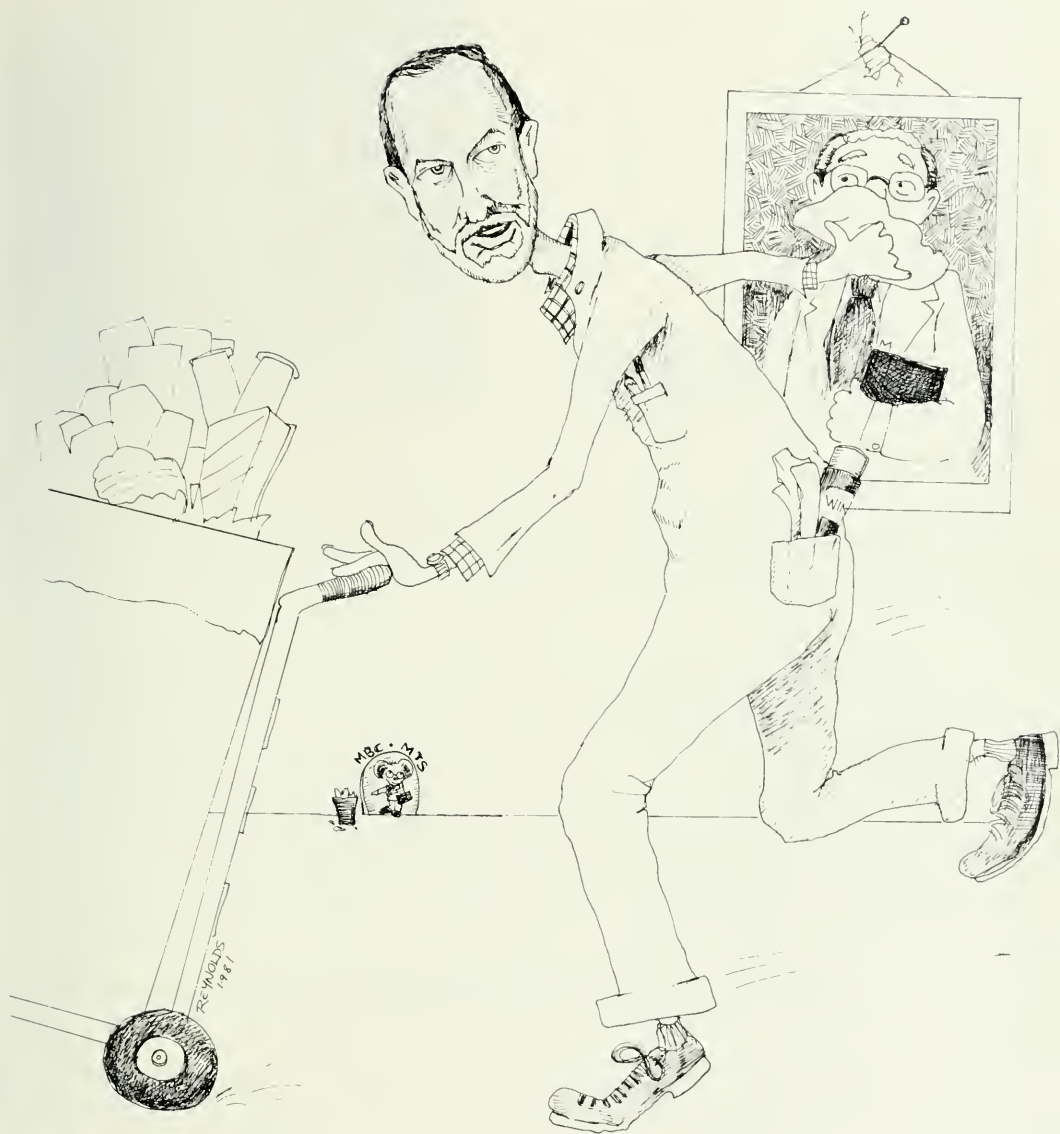

In previous years George was educated in four area technological schools, where he learned his maintenance skills.

When Ontario Bible College transferred to the Willowdale campus in 1976, George came along; and he now resides with his wife, Marjorie, in Weston.

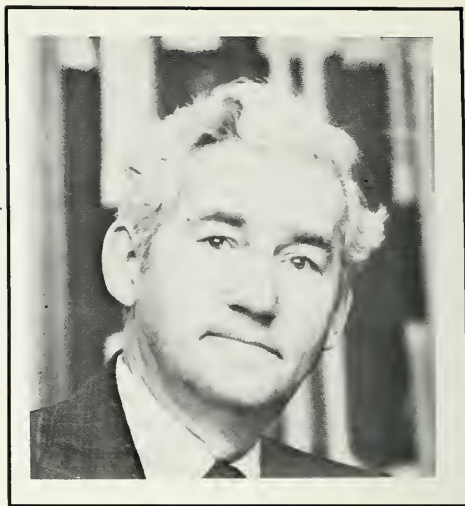

To the faculty, staff and students, George is described as a man who is gentle in character, courteous, concerned for others, a cheerful and hard worker, and a man who genuinely loves the Lord. He never goes by without saying hello, and he will bend over backwards to meet your every need. He works behind the scenes, silently putting his best into every project.

George, even though it does not seem that we recognize your work physically, the faculty, staff and students love you deeply, and would genuinely miss you if you were not a part of the O.B.C. family.

Mr. G.V. Caines

President's Message

BEHOLD I WILL DO A NEW THING!

An inglorious past, former sins, or failures are not to be the substance on which the aspiring soul of the believer is to feed. God calls us to a new glorious future in His Words

Do not call to mind former things, or ponder things of the past. Behold I will do something new. [Isaiah 43:18-19]

Trust and full confidence in our Lord's faithfulness to do new things in our future lives is the best antidote to fear and anxiety, to feelings of inadequacy, to the tentacles of discouragement and depression which would seek to encumber our Christian lives. The "new thing" promised by God centered in Jesus Christ, who would bring new liberty and hope to all those who trusted in Him.

As those who have been united to Christ in His death and resurrection, and endowed with the Spirit, we have every right to be daily sustained by a high level of expectation. Indeed, those who have been most used of God in His services have been precisely those who expected great things from Him: they expected Christ to do new things in their own lives; they expected Christ to do new things in His Church according to His promises; they expected Christ to do new things in the world!

Isaiah reminds us that God is able to "make a way through the sea"; "a path through the mighty waters"; "a roadway in the wilderness"; "rivers in the desert".

May your years at OBC have established more firmly your trust in Him - so that you face your future with enthusiastic, eager, and great expectations! God is always ready to do "a new thing"!

Walter Adman

Chancellor's Message

GOD'S NEW THING

It can be very inspiring and uplifting to reflect on things of yesteryear. Childhood, happy homes, growing up, and the like may call for much happy meditation. Most important of all is that great day when Jesus washed our sins away. Philip Doddridge's moving hymn never ceases to stir our hearts - "Happy day, happy day, when Jesus washed my sins away." Yes, reflection can be very useful.

But in Isaiah 43:19 God says, "Behold, I will do a new thing. ... I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert." And God's glorious conclusion terminates the paragraph with this unspeakable word - "I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Can you conceive of a greater knowledge than that? We hear much these days of "the bottom line." The business man must know the bottom line on his financial statement before he can rest. And so is it with us. God has done a new thing with us, and each succeeding day can be a repetition of the day before. His mercies will be new every morning. Transcendently great will be His faithfulness. How great is this God we adore!

Young people, we praise the Lord that He brought you to Ontario Bible College. We believe that you came here in answer to prayer. Accordingly, we want nothing to happen that might mar your fellowship with the Lord and with the College family. The Lord is prepared to do a new thing in your hearts provided that you are ready, and willing, and anxious to serve Him.

Someone said, "The world has yet to see what God will do through a man wholly yielded to Him." The great preacher, D. L. Moody, said in response, "I will be that man." How about joining him? The dividends will be incalculable. Blessings on you!

Mr. Bell in shorts

Behold I will do a new thing...

In the course of each very ordinary day, somehow the wonder of it all fades into a lull of unpassionate knowledge...

...and the splendour of being a 'newcreation', somehow becomes usual and vague in a haze of facts and theologies and daily conversations...

Within this realm, miracles seem like the stories old men would speak of in hushed voices before the fireside with little children breathless with excitement... stories that marvelously happened but seem so detached from this day...

Everydays may drag on into an endless repetition of faces and events and duties.... and you wonder where the great saints got that burning zeal and unfounded courage to conquer anything and more than likely everything...

Even though one feels drawn under and trapped at times.... into the back of the mind comes the remembrance that it was not in the violent winds, nor in the earthquake, nor in the fire that God revealed Himself...
...but in a still, small, voice...

...perhaps it is well to remember, that in this existence of ours, that may not be very exciting or dramatic, or filled with extraordinary events, and our lives may never be the essence of that which biographies are made of, but the Lord has promised to make anew all this, our vulnerable, ordinary existence,

.... and He will.

ONTARIO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

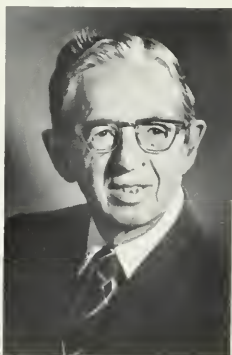

Ontario Theological Seminary is a graduate-level theological seminary which seeks to prepare pastors and missionaries for the service of Jesus Christ in today's church and world. The theological stance may be described as an open evangelicalism, which happily stands within the great Christ-centered affirmations of the evangelical faith, with an awareness that all theology must be undertaken within an atmosphere of faith and devotion, and must be constantly critiqued by Scripture and trenchant thought. We want the students to wrestle with the realities of the Bible and to present the Word of God in living and life-giving power. And our hope is that we will all have a part in the renewal of the Body of Christ in our country and to the ends of the earth.

Ontario Theological Seminary is happy to share the same President, Board, Library and occasional chapels with Ontario Bible College, and anticipates that each institution in its own sphere will contribute to the honoring of Jesus Christ, head of the Church and hope of the World.

CANADIAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The three-fold task of the Canadian Bible Society is:

SCRIPTURE TRANSLATION: Make the Word
CLEAR enough for everyone to understand.
SCRIPTURE PRODUCTION: Make the Word
ATTRACTIVE enough for everyone to want.
SCRIPTURE DISTRIBUTION: Make the Word
ACCESSIBLE enough for everyone to have.

This means providing it below cost or free for Asia, Africa and Latin America.

More Bibles and Testaments are distributed each year but the demand greatly exceeds the supply.

The Canadian Bible Society requires $15,000 each day in contributions and legacies to carry on its work in Canada and

Orientation Week

As a first year student of OBC I came with many a question of what Bible College was all about. I will not pretend to admit that the first week here answered all those questions but it did give me a greater awareness of the unity that is felt at a place such as this.

I appreciated very much the informal outings that were planned for us, as it provided a time of fun and fellowship in a relaxed atmosphere. As the week drew to a close I realized that I was not at all alone, but that people here expressed the love of God in the true sense of the word.

Family Picnic

On Saturday, September 29, 1981, OBC once again invaded Earl Bales Park for their annual Student-Faculty Picnic. Even though the weather was cold and gloomy, spirits were warm and friendly, and fun was had by all.

Class of 84 did a superb job in organization, and games, as well as filling empty stomachs with delicious Swiss Chalet chicken.

However, due to the extreme cold weather the frozen student body made their way back to the Campus for John Bell's message and the traditional student football games.

Once again both upperclassman teams were victorious even though the competition this year was a serious threat. Oh well! Better luck next year.

Alumni Homecoming

We are more than Conquerors - the theme of Homecoming 1981. It was exciting to see Alumni from all phases of life, from all over the world, gather together on October 17th to honour the Class of '31.

Friday night was a time for recreation and relaxation. It was interesting to see Grads of all ages participating in the volleyball game. Following the sports was a "Coffee-house", where members of the present student body shared in testimony and song.

The Saturday program offered class fellowship; three seminars led by faculty; a special luncheon honouring the members of the Class of '31; and a chapel service in which Alex McCombie, was presented the Alumnus of the Year award. The new executive of the Association was also elected at this time. Rev. Lambert Baptist challenged us from the Word of God, and Sam Ko ministered to us in song.

The grand finale of the day was a hockey game between the Swordsmen and the Alumni from the '70's. Needless to say, the winners of the event were our present day Swordsmen.

KOOS FIETJE:IN MEMORIAL

After beginning his third term of missionary service in central Thailand this summer with the Overseas Missionary Fellowship, Koos Fietje (B.R.E '72) was shot and killed in the line of duty on October 24, 1981. It happened on Saturday evening while engaged in ministry in a Thai house. Out of the dark, a man emerged and fired a shot;Koos went to be with his Lord.

We at Ontario Bible College remember Koos with affection. We treasure him as a committed servant of Christ. May we also follow his example of faith and courage.

Spiritual Life Conference

This year's Spiritual Life Conference was anticipated by much prayer - that the Lord would indeed do a new thing.

The ministry of the Sutera Twins, and their associates was much appreciated by all the student body.

The Conference, which was held in the first week of October proved to be a spiritual refreshment. The Lord spoke through His servants in many practical and concrete ways. The impact of this conference was felt for a long time afterwards, and will be remembered by many students for years to come.

This year OBC decided to hold a work-a-thon for two reasons -- first, to raise funds for the school and secondly it was to participate positively and constructively in the 1981 Year of the Disabled.

Many students travelled all over Southern Ontario to different institutes for the disabled to help in any way possible. The day was a real challenge, eye-opener, and blessing for those who had never worked with disabled people before and even those who had!

Special thanks must go to Mr. Taylor for his super organization of the day.

Dr. Carl Armending

Academic Lecture Series

From March 2-4, O.B.C held its annual Academic Lecture Series. This year, Dr. C. Armending led us through an Old Testament study of the prophets. Not only did we learn new facts about each prophet, but we were also able to apply this new knowledge to our own lives.

Global Missions Conference

The theme of this year's Global Missions Conference was, "How Shall We Then Live?" Through the key sermons of Dr. J.R. Blue, and other notable speakers, the student body was faced with this convicting challenge.

The week of January 25 - 29, was an incredible learning experience in chapel services, and in one to one conversations with various missionary boards.

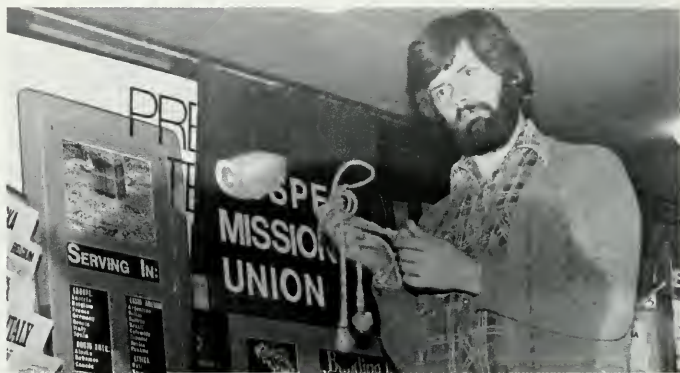

Many students were awakened to the need around them; locally and worldwide; and some prompted by the hand of God, responded to the call.

The Conference Theme

Dr. J. Ronald Blue, Director of the World Missions Research Centre of Dallas, and Chairman of the Department of World Missions at Dallas Theological Seminary will be the keynote speaker at our annual Missions Conference, January 25-29

Class Day Exercises

Traditionally, Class Day Exercises are a time where the Graduating Class takes a stab at recreating school events and mimicing faculty and staff.

This year, of course, was no exception. Led by Dan and Dave MacKenzie, the Class of '82 held a Faculty Reach for the Top panel, and presented the 1982 Academy Awards.

"Lord make my life to be, like the man of Galilea..."

With this prayer in our hearts, this year's One Year Special Class has enjoyed a tremendous year of sharing love, and seeking Christ.

In our interaction during socials, chapels, poster sales, an extended retreat, and a delicious year-end banquet, we have had the exciting pleasure of watching one another grow and be transformed day by day "Into His Image."

On behalf of Bonnie, Jamie, Colleen, Melissa, Gary, and myself, I would like to thank all of you for your vibrant enthusiasm which has made it a privilege to serve on the executive. Each of you have made this a very special year in our lives. II Thessalonians 1:11.

A - ha!

The Exec. and Helpers.

For most of the Class of '85 and myself, this was our first year together. We saw each other for the first time as a class during the second week of school, and at that time we were informed that we had to elect an executive, who would lead the class chapels, and social events. From there, we decided on the theme of unity for our class, and this became our goal. We tried to achieve this in our class chapels, in that we worshipped in an easy fashion singing choruses; having our classmates share what God has done in their lives; and our favourites, the "Musical Chapels."

The climax of our year together was our winter retreat which occurred in the second weekend of March. We went to a fantastic farm, up near Peterborough. The weather was nice, and that helped make it a great weekend. Rev. Bob Little, spoke and taught us the importance of a covenant relationship with the others in our class; to plan to build them up in every way in order that we might be a vital class in the history of O.B.C

Class of '84

Faithfulness, this has been the key word in the life of the Class of '84 this year. Yes, rejoicing in the faithfulness of the Lord Jesus, from the Family Picnic through to the last social in April.

We also have been challenged anew to be faithful in our commitments, and in our service to our King. I trust this year has been both a blessing and a challenge to you.

My thanks to the fine executive I've worked with, and to the members of the Class. It's been a good year.

The Executive

The year of '81-'82 was a growing year for the Class of '83. I believe the class as a whole went through growing pains during this past year. There were times this year when we felt close union together in fellowship, but there were other times that conflict crept in between us. But it is that time of our lives when we are seeking God's permanent plan for our future, and this resulted in class members being involved in activities outside of the school.

The main goal I had for the class this year, was that each member would grow in every area of our lives. I believe this was achieved by our mistakes and triumphs. It has never been so evident to me that the Lord uses our failures, and heartbreaks to teach us.

Allan Gordon.

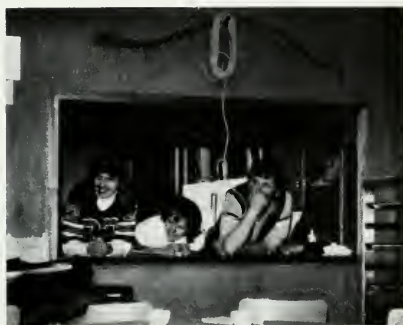

Class of '82

"1982" was the year of our dreams. We have fulfilled our dream of graduating, and now are reaching forth into the world filled with new dreams. It has been said, "Happy are those who dream dreams, and are ready to pay the price to make them come true." Our challenge is to be committed to God, and be willing to pay the price worthy of His costly grace.

Student Life

Student Council

Another year has ended and with it many experiences both pleasant and otherwise. Faded into the background of our minds are the harried pressured nights, when into the early hours of the morning we laboured on those papers.

This year, we have seen the implementation of the Gratis Program which has helped to keep the school much cleaner and it has provided the Student Council with an extra $5000.00 to spend on items like darkroom equipment and vacuum cleaners.

The salad bar in the cafeteria, has helped to vary the menu, and the Field Ed. phone has helped to alleviate the problem of using the pay phone to call your 25 young people.

While the year went by the lessons we learned stayed on in our minds; and we moved on.

The Student Committee for Global Ministries, had an eventful and interesting year. Our theme, "How Shall We Then Live?" was the question which was addressed in our Missions Conference, where we were challenged to live our lives for God's glory, to reach the world for Him. Weekly chapels gave the students a glimpse of God's work around the world; and a series of chapels on the Lifestyle issue, reminded us of our responsibilities, as citizens of the affluent West, towards our brothers and sisters in other areas. It was a year which, we pray, will have brought lasting change into our lives.

Compliments Of

STUDENT COUNCIL

1982

The Devotional Committee's general responsibilities are to promote the devotional and evangelistic activities of the students. The 1981-82 Committee broke this down into four areas: Word; Prayer; Fellowship and Evangelism. Through chapels reading materials; prayer vigils; fellowship times; and other activities, the Committee sought to stimulate and encourage students in these areas.

We praise God, for the things He did, and look forward with anticipation to what He will do in the upcoming year. "Not by might; nor by power; but by My Spirit; saith the Lord of hosts. (Zechariah 4:6)

Marketplace

Communication- the transfer of concepts, the sharing of little bits of ourselves with others- it goes on constantly at O.B.C. There are a thousand different levels from which we share with each other. Ordinary conversation; facial expression; the tone of voice; verbal discussion; and body language. However, conversation does not give the opportunity to carefully think through your thoughts, or to ponder current issues. This is where the Market-place comes in. It is a forum where people can communicate with each other, after careful study of the issue. I hope, in the past year, the words in the Market-place, succeeded in doing that for you.

The third annual Athletic Banquet took place on Wednesday April 14, 1982. Sally Lichtenberg and Les Clemens did a fine job of emceeing the proceedings.

This year the school teams were again recognized with the Most Valuable players chosen from each team.

The choice for the Best Male and Female Athlete award this year was a very difficult one. However, Scott Forbes and Barb Smids came away with the well-earned honours. These two led O.B.C to many team victories.

Recognition was also made of O.B.C's sweeping victory at the 1982 Inter-College Quads, which was held in Waterloo on March 27th, 1982.

The show however, was stolen by the O.B.C Swordsmen Hockey Team who were this year's champs in the E.H.L.

To each member of the various teams at O.B.C, due honours are given to you all.

The Reception

The 1982 Graduation Banquet was held at the elegant Bristol Place Hotel, April 31, 1982.

Through the roasting from our Class Advisors, the address from the valedictorian, the slideshow, and a parting song from Laurie Oakman, the Grads looked back over the years they had spent at O.B.C.

A much-earned thanks should be given to Gwen Laird and Paul Warner for their excellent hosting, and to the Class of '83 for all their planning and hard work.

It was a smash!!!

Valedictorian- Dana Brown

The Kidnapping

Grad Rehearsal

Early in the morning of May 1, 1982, the student body was bused down to the Coliseum to practice for the Graduation Ceremony.

However, the undergrads and faculty, did not know that a kidnapping and marsh-mellow war, were going to be part of the proceedings.

Sounds like the Class of '82, eh!

Happy Birthday John!

Fish-lips, guys!

Marshmellow fight!!!
